Statements Issued by the Bosworths

indicate that this evangelist bases his indicate that this evangelist bases his teachings on several Bible texts. Rev. F. F. Bosworth frequently quotes Psalms 103:3: "Who forgiveth thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases." It is understood that throughout the entire campaign prayers for the sick will be offered at the close of every service and special services for the sick will be held twice a week. Both the Bosworths disclaim week. Both the Bosworths disclaim week. Both the Bosworths disclaim any merit or virtue in themselves or what they say, making it plain that they are in no sense "healers," and exercise no healing powers, but simply pray for and with those who re afflicted.

A large musical program is being rranged for these meetings. This rogram includes many instrumental uets on cornet and trombone by the Bosworth brothers both of whom are accomplished musicians. Rev. F. F. Bosworth was for many years a band leader and his band at one time gave 20 consecutive concerts at Madison Square Garden in New York. B. B. Bosworth, the brother, is a soloist and trombonist. He is now organzing a large chorus choir which will
